RACE FOR THE KIDS

Last year 4,000 people ran in the race and everyone has their own story of the day. This is Lucy's story:

'Last year somebody in our school was a patient in Great Ormond Street Hospital. He's well now and we wanted to thank the hospital. Five students from our class entered the Race for the Kids. Before the race day we went into town with our teacher and we collected<sup>3</sup> money outside our local supermarket and post office. In the end we raised<sup>4</sup> a total of £1,589 for the hospital!

Unfortunately, it rained on the day of the race, but nobody cared<sup>5</sup>. Everybody had a good time<sup>6</sup>! There were runners everywhere in the park and we all had light blue T-shirts with the name of the race on them. I ran 5 km in 39 minutes and I was very happy about that! The atmosphere was fantastic, it was a great day!'

RULES FOR THE RACE

Everyone is welcome to enter but there are a few simple rules:

- 1 You must register online.
- 2 You must register before 20th June.
- 3 You must pay an entry fee<sup>7</sup> Race for the Kids when you register: adults £15, children (under 16) £10.
- 4 Children under 16 must have permission from their parent to enter.
